

ALEXANDRIA, VA.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1871.

CANAL TRADE.—The lease of the Alexandria Canal, with the benefits obtained in connection with a bridge over the Aqueduct, &c., will probably be an advantageous one to the lessees. It was made under stress, because the Canal Company had no means themselves to build a new Aqueduct trench, and it was thought best to accept the proposals of those who had or could procure the funds for the restoration of navigation. To bring to this port a large portion of the coal trade from the Cumberland mines, was one of the main objects in the original construction of the Canal and Aqueduct. From this place to the ocean is unobstructed navigation—vessels can come to and depart from our wharves in deep water with the heaviest cargoes—there is no detention here in loading coal vessels, &c., &c. It seems to us, that policy and interest should unite in inducing those who hold the lease, (almost ownership) to make the tolls on the canal as light as possible, to bring them down to the lowest point so as to give Alexandria the fairest chance for reaping the rewards of its enterprise, sharing largely in the trade to which we have referred; and repaying in some measure the heavy expense incurred. We believe a reduction of tolls every way important.

But in addition to coal, there should be an effort made to open an enlarged trade with the upper counties of Maryland and Virginia along which the canal passes. Many other articles of produce besides wheat and corn, can and should be brought to this market, by this artificial river; and we should be glad to see our merchants and business men turning their attention to the subject, and opening communication and intercourse with the farmers, merchants, and people generally, living in easy distance of the canal. All does not depend on railroads. Give us the river trade and the canal trade and what an impetus would be exerted in favor of the growth and prosperity of Alexandria!

At the State Council of the United Order of American Mechanics, held in Philadelphia last Wednesday, a resolution against "Unions" was adopted, and measures looking to a restoration of the old apprenticeship system were taken. Miss Anna Dickinson, in her lecture in Philadelphia last Friday evening on "Workmen and Demagogues," said that no man had ever lifted himself to eminence who was not willing to give an equivalent for his wages, or who stopped to "count the hours." She took strong ground against the labor organizations as at present conducted, and favored the restoration of the old apprenticeship system.

The Philadelphia Ledger, in its weekly report of the Anthracite Coal Trade says:—"The continued heavy production of coal under a lessened demand for consumption has put down prices a further twenty-five cts. per ton, and the market closes exceedingly weak. There is little disposition to operate for a future market in the present unsettled condition of monetary affairs. The orders come in slowly, and operators are beginning to be a little anxious, though indisposed to abate much in prices." The Scranton Company's sale of coal was to have taken place today.

It is said that among the curious phenomena noticed in boring the Mount岑 Tunnel, was that scarcely a drop of water was found. Water to drink for the workmen had all the time to be brought from without. A very significant ferruginous spring was the only one they came across. A second remarkable observation was that the geological character of the interior of the mountain answered exactly to the description given of it from scientific theory by M. Sismondi, twenty years ago.

It is said that at a meeting of the Cabinet, yesterday, a conversation in reference to the Hornet was had. The U. S. Government sustains the course of Minister Bassett in his complaint to the Haytiens, and has, through the Secretary of State, informed the Spanish Minister that whatever offence the Hornet may have committed, after she had bonded to the U. S., is considered a question to be settled by this country, as the vessel carries the American flag.

It is reported that a bill will be introduced at the next session of Congress, in accordance with the views of several boards of trade and other commercial organizations, to establish a Department of Commerce, thus relieving the Treasury of the control of such bureaus as the bureau of statistics, commissioner of customs, bonded transportation, &c.

The Harrisburg, Pa. Patriot is clear in the opinion that it is President Grant's duty to immediately reorganize his cabinet, so as to include a Pennsylvania statesman of favorable reputation. It ought, perhaps, says the Baltimore Sun, to be explained, that the last allusion is to Senator Simon Cameron!

Garibaldi says that the "Empire" is done with in France; while Napoleon and his friends declare that a majority of the people are really in favor of a restoration of the Empire—and are working to accomplish that end. In the mean time the elements of opposition to the Thiers government are gathering.

A pretended "confidential agent" of Secretary Fish, who has been figuring lately in California, has been discovered to be an imposter, arrested, tried, and put in prison.

A large fire occurred yesterday at Darmstadt, Germany, which destroyed the Court Theatre, and at the last dates was threatening to burn many other buildings.

The Michigan Relief Committee makes an appeal to the people of the U. S. for relief to the sufferers by the terrible fires which have and are still devastating that State. Such suffering as the sorrow-stricken people of the burned districts now experience has never before had an equal in the United States. Accounts from the Northern portion of New York state "that the fires in the mountains on the upper Hudson are still raging. The mountains above Danphin, Penn., have been on fire since Friday last, extending two miles from the Susquehanna river and the entire breadth of Peter's Mountain. Fresh fires have broken out in Wisconsin. Advises from Lima, Ohio, state that extensive fires are raging in the woods near that place, and that several villages are threatened with destruction. In West Jefferson, Ohio, a disastrous fire was caused by a party of sportsmen kindling a fire in a woods. At last accounts the flames had traversed a slope of country nine miles in width, and two miles in breadth.

The accepted theory of physicians and those who have studied the case of young Mr. Pryor, whose death we have already recorded, and the melancholy circumstances attending it, is that he was suffering from congestion of the brain; that this brought with it a temporary derangement of his reason, and that he walked off the dock at Wall street ferry within five minutes after he left home. He was one of the most brilliant and gifted young men in the country. In all the departments of literature and learning he excelled. He is said, too, to have been as kind and gentle as he was gifted. What hopes have been withered in his early death!

A suit is now on trial in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, of Hoff & Hersh against the Northern Central Railroad Company, for $20,000, alleged overcharge in freights. It is stated to be the test case of claims involving not less than half a million dollars.

In the Colored Convention at Columbia, an Arkansas delegate offered a resolution favoring the renomination of President Grant, but the convention adopted a substitute declaring it impolitic to anticipate the action of the Republican party!

The cases under investigation by the Southern Claims Commission yesterday, were those of Mrs. Caroline Heater, of Frederick county, and George Bayless, of Alexandria county, Va., the former amounting to $14,000, and the latter to $900.

The Radical Committee, under the frank of Mr. Platt, are scattering, "Ku-Klux" documents all over the State—that is sheets filled with the assertions of those who have been accusing the people of the South with "Ku-Kluxism."

Mr. N. G. Ordey, of New Hampshire, Seagout at Arms of the U. S. R. is buying himself in the election in Virginia, by going about as a speaker in behalf of the Radical candidates for the Legislature.

It is understood that Dr. Mallet, professor of applied chemistry in the University of Virginia, will fill the place temporarily of the late Dr. Maupin, lately killed.

The U. S. Circuit Court, at Richmond, Judge Bond presiding, commenced its session yesterday.

Small-pox is prevailing to a considerable extent in Philadelphia.

Virginia will vote on the 7th of next month. So will New York.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

A letter from Louis Court House to the Abingdon Virginian says:—"This village has improved very much since the war, and the sound of the hammer is still heard. Some twenty-five or thirty new buildings have been erected within the last five years, and among the number several manufacturing houses, such as sawmills, carriage factory, cigar factory, tobacco factory, and soon we are going to have a plaster and bark mill—several fine residences and stores have been added recently.

Mr. William L. Lance, of Pennsylvania, has bought out half of the Atlantic Iron Works, in Norfolk, and will begin a great business on the first of next month. Steam canal boats, car wheels, ornamental castings, and the most improved machinery will be manufactured, and all that wealth and intelligence can do will be put forth by the new company.

The Southside Agricultural Society, announces the purpose of its members and others—citizens of Amelia county—to hold a market at their courthouse on Wednesday, the 25th instant, for the sale of agricultural and domestic produce, stock, meats, &c. This market, it is intended, shall hereafter be opened regularly once a month.

A locomotive common road engine, is to be exhibited at the Virginia State fair. It was built in London and recently exhibited at fairs in Belgium and other European countries. The exhibitor is W. C. Osler, a Scotch gentleman, now residing in New York.

G. W. Ward has been nominated for the State Senate from the Winchester district, by the Convention which met at Front Royal, yesterday. The district was represented last session by W. D. Smith, esq., an intelligent and faithful representative.

A colored woman in Richmond, whilst standing before a cooking stove, had her clothes to take fire, and was burned so badly that she died, yesterday.

The Richmond Whig says that Messrs. J. F. Lewis and Lewis McKenzie are to speak at a Radical meeting in Staunton.

Dr. W. W. Lewis, whose case has been so often mentioned, has been declared by a jury of Greenville county to be insane.

The State Council of the Friends of Temperance met in Charlottesville yesterday.

Robert Crutchfield has been appointed a notary public for Spotsylvania county.

Only nineteen deaths in Richmond reported last week.

Gov. Walker has gone to Danville.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.—The House of Deputies of the Episcopal General Convention yesterday received a report from the committee against any change in the Prayer Book, and in opposition to permitting any clergyman to omit passages which he does not conscientiously agree with. The report was adopted by the House.

The canon on Ritual, which leaves any question regarding it to the decision of the Bishop in which it may arise, was adopted by the House of Bishops. The discussion of the canon was continued. It is understood that the vote by which the Canon on Ritual passed the House of Bishops was 24 to 19. Among the speakers yesterday were Judge Shoffey and Mr. B. J. Barbour of Va., who both made eloquent and able addresses.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the Fines."

The second annual meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club, began yesterday at the Pimlico Grounds. There were five races: the first, a two mile hurdle race, for two-year-olds, which was won by Venus over three competitors—time, 3:52; the second, a two mile dash for three-year-olds, won by Harry Bassett, no competitor appearing to contest the field with him; the third race, for two-year-olds (three-quarters of a mile), was won by Grey Planet over four competitors—time, 1:17; the fourth race was a two mile dash for four-year-olds, Preakness walked over the track and carried off the Pimlico Stakes; the fifth race was a two-mile dash, open to all ages, and was won by Madam Dudley over six competitors—time, 3:38.

At Bristol (Tenn.) on the 23d inst., a row occurred among a few drinking colored people, pistols and knives being used freely. A colored man was severely cut about the head. In attempting to arrest William Rencher, Jr. (colored), the ringleader, and a desperate character, he asserted that no white man could arrest him, and advanced upon Mr. Curtin, who fired upon him with a pistol, wounding him in the arm; the same ball severely if not fatally wounding little Willie Eaton. Rencher was arrested.

Three men have been captured near Bluff ton, South Carolina, on the plantation of one of them, by colored men, under the direction of a colored constable, a notoriously bad character, and the terror of the whites in the neighborhood. The prisoners were badly wounded, one of them, it was believed, mortally. The offense was that one of them attempted to recover his lands and collect his rents from his colored tenants, who refused either to pay or leave his premises.

The English yacht Livonia has again been beaten by the Dauntless, in a contest for a fifty-guinea cup. The race was over the ocean course from the Sandy Hook light-ship to a stake-boat stationed twenty miles to the windward and return. At one time during the contest it was feared that the Dauntless would be the loser, but by expert handling she managed to pass her rival, and reached the light-ship six minutes and three seconds in advance of the Ashbury craft.

There is some excitement among polygamists in Utah in regard to Hawkins' fate. The court room yesterday was thronged with women. Hawkins himself is apparently unconcerned. He has been remanded to prison at Camp Douglas. The Mormon trial pace, provided Brigham Young is not subjected to imprisonment. They say Brigham would submit, but his followers would never allow it.

Parties at Atlanta Georgia, are seizing the rolling stock and other property of the Brunswick and Albany Railroad for debts. The iron for the road was seized at Brunswick. No payments have been made for some time. Kimball's inability is said to be the result of the Chicago fire. There are rumors of repudiation of the State bonds hypothesized by him.

A farmer in New York is attempting to establish the fact that animals can live without water. Some time in June last he put in an enclosure a number of hogs and a small calf. Neither the hogs nor the calf had any water during this entire period, and yet, strange to say, they are all as fat as moles, and are in an exceedingly thriving condition.

The action of Secretary Robeson in promptly dismissing a number of cadet midshipmen for hazing the new comers, is likely to be followed by the summary dismissal of several West Point cadets by the War Department, for certain recent offences in this direction of more than usual viciousness and brutality.

The Reform Democratic Convention in New York city yesterday evening nominated candidates for the Assembly; among them was the eminent jurist Charles O'Connor. In one district the Tammany nominee was endorsed. The Radical Convention also made nominations for the Assembly.

A year ago Pollock was the postmaster at Little Rock, Arkansas, but he was suspended to make room for Hodges, whose appointment was confirmed by the Senate in December. The tables are now turned, and Hodges is ejected to make room for his predecessor.

The Civil Service Commission are in session at Washington, and at work on their subject. They are now having in consideration a recommendation of placing appointees to office on a term of probation so that their qualifications may be understood.

Judge Ingersoll, of New York, yesterday issued a mandamus, compelling the Comptroller to issue bonds to the amount of $200,000 for a Museum and Observatory in Central Park and the Eighth Avenue improvement, and $500,000 to the Board of Parks.

Among the effects of Major J. L. Hodges turned over to the U. S. were 257 pieces of American silver, copper, bronze and nickel coins the intrinsic value of which amounted to only $61.13. The whole collection brought at auction $135.70.

Samuel Winwood, residing at Chagrin Falls, Ohio, was attacked yesterday near his home by two men. He was dragged from his buggy shot through the arm, beaten and robbed of $900. The robbers escaped.

The Grand Jury in New York yesterday dismissed the bill indicting Mayor Hall for malfeasance in office, but passed a vote of censure upon him for negligence in the discharge of his duties.

The annual report of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce recommends the withdrawal of their representation in the National Board of Trade, regarding such representation as of no further benefit.

A petition numerously signed by women of Utah, protesting against polygamy, has been received at the Executive Mansion.

There were four deaths from yellow fever in Charleston yesterday in the twenty-four hours up to noon.

There is trouble about the Savannah Custom-house.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—President Howison and Superintendent Gedney, of the Potomac Ferry Company, have waited on the Board of Public Works, to request that the street facing the wharf be made passable. They also complain that the sidewalks on both sides of Seventh street, from F to L streets, are in such condition that pedestrians are unable to walk on them.

The influences brought to bear upon the movement against the ratification of the four million loan appear to have been of potency sufficient, if not to entirely paralyze the movement.

Henry D. Cooke, Governor of this District, is expected to return from Europe next week. The U. S. ship Constellation, one of the practice fleet, has been ordered to the Washington Navy Yard for repairs and Master Louisa (pilot) left here this morning to bring her from Annapolis.

Heretofore apothecaries in this and other cities have neglected, to greater or less extent, to affix internal revenue proprietary stamps upon small quantities of perfumery, cosmetics, &c., sold by them, but quite a flutter has been created among dealers here, several of whom have recently been fined from $50 to $250 for indulging in this practice.

LODPOUN COUNTY.—There will be a meeting of the citizens of West London, at the Academy Hall, Hamilton, on Saturday, the 25th of October, immediately after the adjournment of the Building Association, to petition the W. & O. R. R. to run all passenger trains to Hamilton.

As Dr. Harison was returning from Leesburg, on Tuesday last, with his wife in his carriage, the horse took fright as they were coming down the west side of Katahdin mountain and ran off. The carriage was smashed up, and the doctor and his wife thrown out, but neither of them, fortunately, was seriously hurt.

For some time past we have heard it said that there is no place for travellers to stop at in Hamilton. But such is not the case, for the very best accommodation can be had at Mrs. Jammy's, and at a very moderate rate, too.

The mast this fall is very abundant, providentially sent to supply the lack of corn. Hogs will be in fine condition to take on fat rapidly, when they are put up to be prepared for the meat tub.

Mr. Jonah Hatcher, Commissioner of the Leesburg & Snickersville turnpike, is getting ready to put the road in first rate order all along the line. — Leesburg Enterprise.

Mr. Phillip Tabb, who lives about a mile and a half from Richmond, a day or two ago met with an accident by which the sight of one of his eyes has been entirely destroyed. He was cutting corn, when a stalk struck the ball of his eye splitting it in twain. The sight of the other eye by sympathetic affection has been greatly impaired, and it is feared may also be lost.

The verdict of the Coroner's jury in Chicago in the Grosvenor homicide case, simply states the fact that Grosvenor was shot by Treat, without sufficient cause, but says the juristic opinion is that Treat supposed he was executing orders given him by those who placed him on guard. Treat has been arrested.

CITY COUNCIL.
